DID YOU KNOW?

The Ganges River Dolphin hunts by emitting ultrasonic sounds or “Echolocation”, which bounces off of fish and other prey, enabling them to “see” an image in their mind!

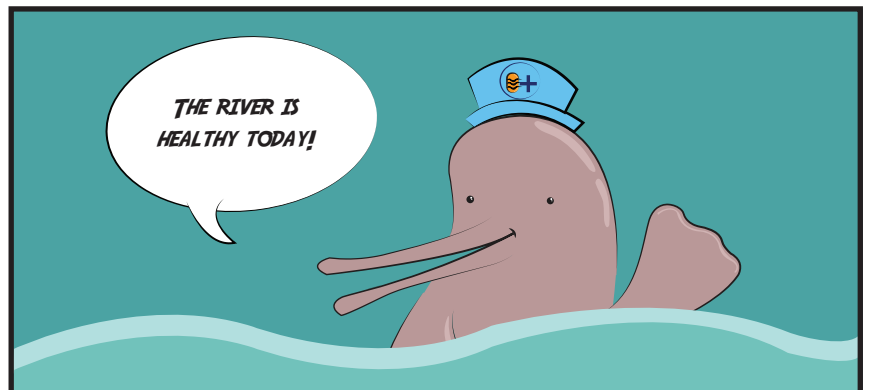

They are almost blind! But hey! they can differentiate between light and dark.

The Ganges River Dolphins are extremely shy and prefer not to chat with human beings.

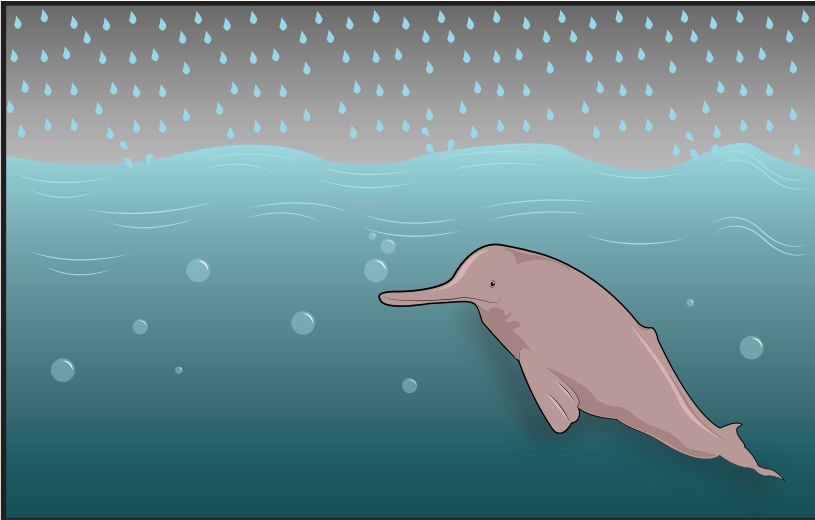

The Ganges River Dolphin is the National Aquatic Mammal of India!

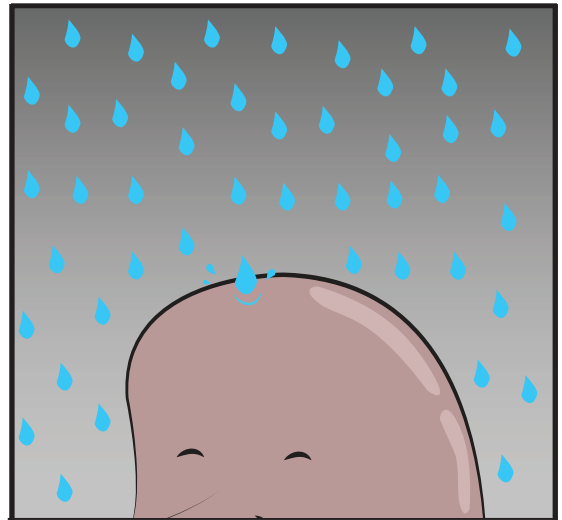

The Ganges River Dolphin tells us about the health of the river! They are an “Indicator specie”!

LOST IN THE RIVER!

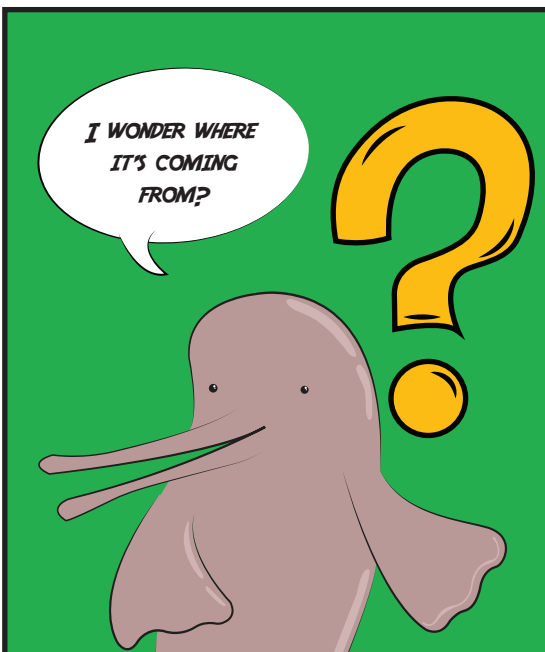

It was raining heavily and Ms. Dolly was swimming against the tide of the mighty Ganges!

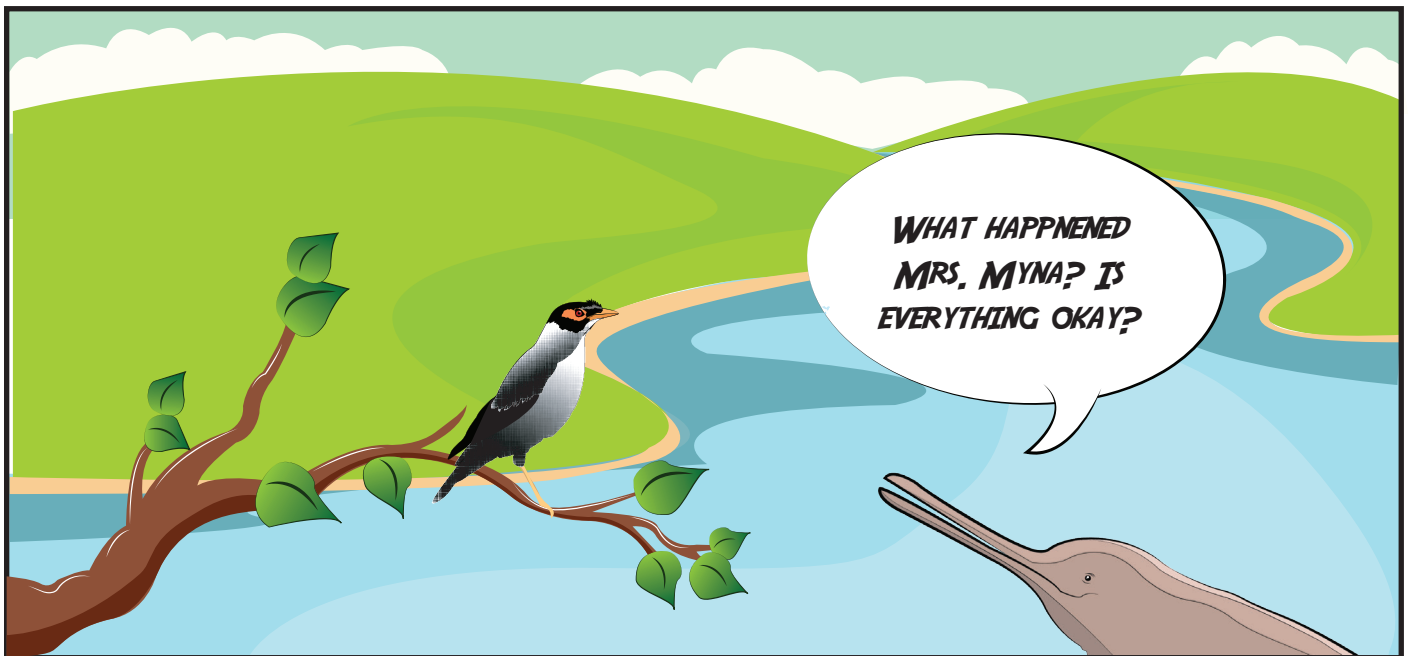

She was enjoying the little raindrops on her head.

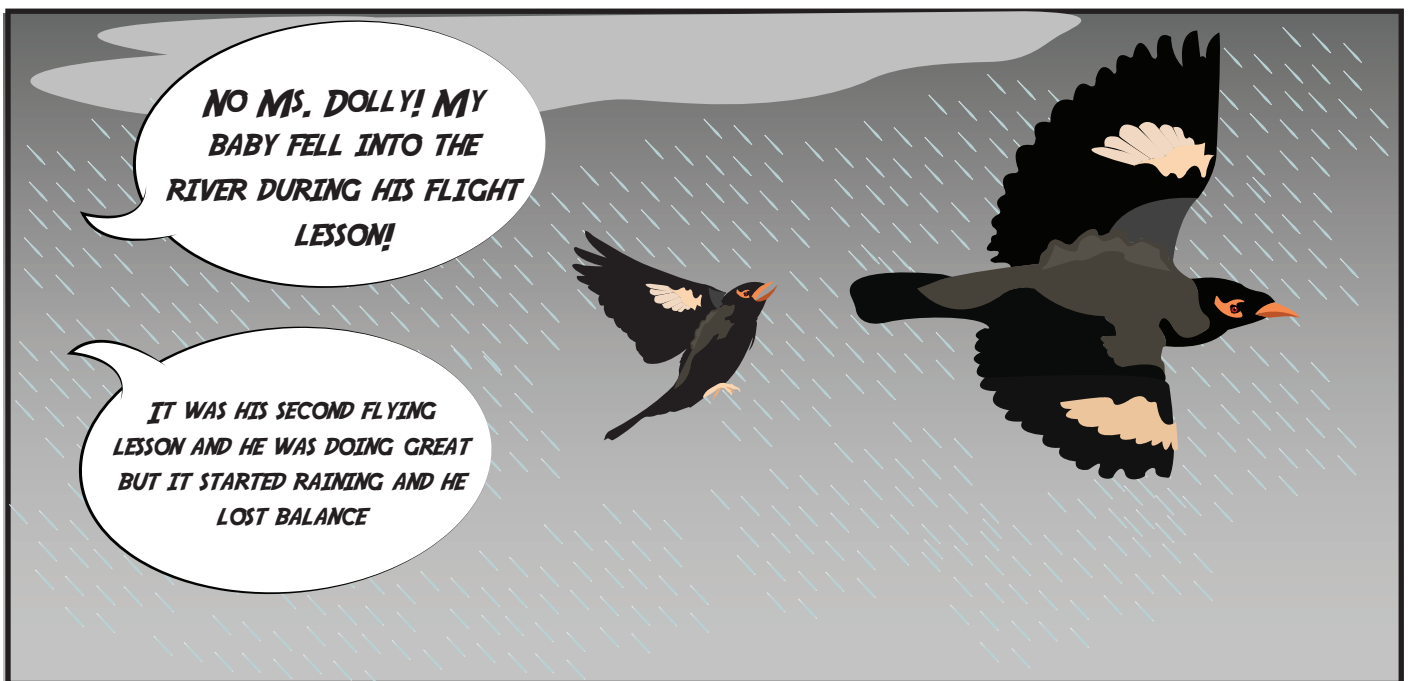

All of a sudden, Ms. Dolly heard someone crying for help.

As Ms. Dolly swam to the surface to take a fresh breath of air she realised that Mrs. Myna is crying for help!

*WHAT HAPPNENED
MRS. MYNA? IS EVERYTHING OKAY?*

*NO MS. DOLLY! MY BABY FELL INTO THE
RIVER DURING HIS FLYING LESSON!*

*IT WAS HIS SECOND FLYING
LESSON AND HE WAS DOING GREAT
BUT IT STARTED RAINING AND HE LOST BALANCE*

*I CAN'T FIND HIM
ANYWHERE, PLEASE HELP ME

SUPER SONAR

It had stopped pouring and somewhere in the river, They spotted Myna Jr.!

Myna Jr. was clinging to a little leaf, scared and crying for help!

*HEY CHAMP! DON'T

*I AM PERFECTLY WELL
MOMMY! THANK YOU FOR

As the beautiful sun set, Mrs. Myna and Myna Jr. flew away into the sunset and Super Dolly took her cape off and dived back into the river, her home.
